General Description of Course:

This course is designed to promote the mission and vision of catechesis. It will examine the vocation of catechists and the qualities and skills needed to be a catechist. The catechists will be introduced to psychological elements of human and faith development, and the methods of catechizing according to the stages of faith development.

Content Outline:

- Session One
Mission & Vision of Catechesis
- Session Two
Readiness to Receive the Message
- Session Three
Catechetical Methods
- Session Four
Classroom Management

Each of these sessions will be covered at both St. Julie's and Our Lady of the Woods. You must attend both sessions at St. Julie's on Oct. 5 (session 1 & 2) and Nov. 2 (session 3 & 4) or all four sessions at Our Lady of the Woods on Sept. 24 (session 1), Oct. 1 (session 2), Oct. 8 (session 3) and Oct. 22 (session 4) to receive credit towards certification for the full Course.
